

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Lake County

Invites you to join us for our

Free Social Justice Online Lecture Series!!

Second Topic: 7 p.m. on Sunday, August 2, 2020

Our Farm Workers: Essential or Expendable?

Speaker: Jeannie Economos

Project Coordinator for the Farm Workers Association of Florida

With over 35 years of experience with environmental and social justice issues, Jeannie Economos has been working with the Farmworker Association of Florida for over 20 years. She is the Pesticide Safety and Environmental Health Project Coordinator and the Lake Apopka Farmworker Project Coordinator. She is engaged in community based participatory research projects with academic institutions. She is also active in local, state, national and international coalitions focused on farm worker rights, health and safety, and on pesticide reduction, sustainable agriculture, food sovereignty, climate change and community resiliency.

To register, click here:

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJcrf-yqqzlrG9wJ4J60BF0Hkj9wsntx3Bvv>

The link can also be found on our website <http://www.lakecountyuu.net>

