Invites you to join us for our
Free Social Justice Online Lecture Series!!
Fourth Topic: 7 p.m. on Sunday, August 30, 2020

EQUITY vs. EQUALITY in the FLORIDA SCHOOL SYSTEM:
HOW THE STATE TIES LOCAL HANDS

Speaker: Dr. Kristi Burns, Chair of the Lake County School Board

Dr. Kristi Burns was born and raised in Lake County by parents who were teachers. She has a bachelor's degree from Tuft's University in chemistry and biology and a doctorate from Georgia Tech in chemistry and biochemistry. She and her husband Mark Carlson have four children, ranging in age from 7 – 13 years. Before being elected to the Lake County School Board in 2016, Dr. Burns led other parents in advocating less testing and the re-instatement of recess. She was recently elected to another four-year term on the Lake County School Board, which she currently chairs.

The lecture will be followed by questions from the public presented by the moderator, Russ Littlefield.
